PROSPECTS OF THE TARIFF IN NEXT CONGRESS.

The first U. S. Senate, speaker of Congress from the Tenth District of Illinois was asked by a Tribune reporter Tuesday, "What is the Fifty-eighth Congress going to do in the way of tariff legislation?" His reply was:

"I do not propose to have my name at the top of the list of prophets, but I am willing to say that the Republican party will be in control of the Fifty-eighth Congress, and will be responsible for the payment of pensions to Union soldiers. If the Democratic members of Congress cannot unite with us in a substitute of the session for reducing the tariff, we pledge ourselves to maintain the present rates. If the Democratic members of Congress can
